

Sales Executive Level 4

Training & Apprenticeships

Overview:

The Level 4 Sales Executive apprenticeship Standard is designed for individuals who are looking to advance their career in sales and sales management.

This apprenticeship provides the skills, knowledge, and practical experience needed to manage complex sales processes, build lasting client relationships, and drive business growth.

The Standard covers a wide range of competencies including prospecting, negotiation, customer relationship management, and strategic selling.

The program is ideal for those aiming to become skilled sales professionals or move into management roles, with a focus on developing a high level of commercial acumen and a strong understanding of market dynamics.

Through this apprenticeship, learners will gain the expertise to meet and exceed sales targets, while demonstrating leadership in their professional field.

Professional recognition:

Achievement of the Standard meets the eligibility requirements for Sales Certification at Level 4 with the Institute of Sales Professionals (ISP).
